YEAR IN REVIEW

April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025

Dear Council Members,

I am honored to present the General Secretary's Annual Report for 2024-2025. This report aims to provide an overview of the activities of the National Joint Council (NJC) and highlight its achievements over the past year, spanning from April 1, 2024, to March 31, 2025. The Report includes the Yearly Planning Agenda for 2025-2026, which was approved by the Executive Committee and ratified by the Council in June 2025 (refer to the appendix). This agenda outlines Council's priorities for the upcoming year and the tasks to be undertaken by the various NJC Working Committees and Boards of Management.

The NJC is a distinctive organization co-managed by both the Employer and the Bargaining Agent Sides, where all matters falling under its auspices are considered and resolved jointly. The NJC has thrived in the federal public sector due to its emphasis on service-wide concerns that are consistent across different departments and regions. The NJC plays a crucial role in promoting information exchange, consultation, and collaboration between the federal public service as the Employer, and the federal Bargaining Agents representing approximately 295,000 public service employees in Canada. For more than 80 years, the parties have successfully reached agreements on numerous employment terms and conditions, as well as health-related benefits, through a collaborative framework. Although these accomplishments can be challenging, the parties have remained focused on shared interests with the common objective of improving working conditions for all individuals in the public service.

Throughout this year, the NJC Working Committees and Boards of Management have diligently continued their work, convening regularly. Additionally, committee members engaged with stakeholders as necessary and addressed grievances and appeals. These activities are detailed throughout this report and compiled in the Achievements section (page 11). All members of the Working Committees and Boards of Management, representing both sides, engage in their NJC responsibilities alongside their regular professional roles. I express my gratitude for their unwavering commitment and dedication on behalf of the entire federal public service. Additionally, I wish to acknowledge the staff and Committee Advisors of the NJC Secretariat, whose dedication to excellence is crucial, and whose capacity to assist and support is evident in the effectiveness of the Working Committees and Boards of Management.

CONSULTATIONS

The effectiveness of consultations can vary based on numerous factors and the specific subject matter at hand; however, maintaining a constant dialogue is essential. Our ongoing objective is to pursue meaningful consultations rather than mere information-sharing and to provide a forum for proactive discussions and early engagement whenever feasible. Over the past year, various topics were presented across multiple subjects, aiming to achieve our goal of facilitating joint consultations and fostering transparent discussions. Presentations included a report from the Pay Equity Commissioner, GC Workplace Accessibility Passport progress, Security Policy Modernization update and concluded with the Annual Report from the Public Service Commission, which serves as a highlight of the year and encourages extensive discussions among stakeholders. These events promote open dialogue and continuous communication, providing further opportunities for collaboration between the NJC and its partners.

COMMUNICATIONS / TRAINING & OUTREACH

The 2024 NJC Seminar entitled Valuing Diversity: Cultivating a Culture of Inclusion, Equity and Accessibility in the Federal Public Service, took place in September 2024 in the National Capital Region over a span of two days. The 109 registered participants collaborated during the sessions and were provided with various networking opportunities to engage in open discussions regarding current and forthcoming issues affecting both employer and employee parties. The significance of the NJC Seminar as a platform for networking, training, and joint development is indisputable.

The interest in the NJC half-day Labour Relations training sessions was remarkably high, with 233 persons taking part. The success, preparation and delivery of this training can be attributed to the unwavering dedication of the NJC staff. Their expertise is distinctive within the public service, as they frequently engage with files and hearings from both parties' perspectives, enabling them to offer equitable and impartial support to all involved.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Completion of the cyclical review of the Foreign Service Directives
- Completion of the cyclical review of the Isolated Posts and Government Housing Directive
- Completion (partial) of the cyclical review on agreed items of the Travel Directive, remaining items referred to third-party resolution
- Received input for the cyclical review of the Bilingualism Bonus Directive, and issued opting call
- Initiated the input call for the cyclical review of the Relocation Directive

NATIONAL JOINT COUNCIL 2024-2025

As I conclude my second year as General Secretary, I remain committed to supporting and elevating the work and reputation of the NJC, and I feel honoured to be a member of this exceptional organization, which exemplifies the importance of union and management collaboration in the federal public service.

Thank you for supporting the NJC.

MANDATE

of the
National Joint Council

Created in 1944, the National Joint Council (NJC) now includes nineteen (19) public service Bargaining Agents, and five (5) Employers as members. The activities of Council directly affect the working lives of approximately 295,000 represented employees in 89 departments and agencies in every region of Canada. The NJC contributes to effective labour relations and human resources management on many fronts, including:

- by co-developing public service-wide terms and conditions of employment through various NJC directives;
- by co-developing public service-wide health care coverage;
- by providing joint management of health care plans;
- by developing and reviewing occupational health and safety policies and providing advice and leadership to departments and agencies in this field;
- by resolving employee grievances (related to NJC directives) and appeals (regarding dental and disability benefits);
- by providing a forum for information-sharing, consultation and co-development on other policies and initiatives (such as for employment equity and official languages);
- by sponsoring other activities to build strong relations among the parties.

The National Joint Council is the forum of choice for co-development, consultation and information sharing between the government as Employer and public service Bargaining Agents.

Through the National Joint Council, the parties work together to resolve problems and establish terms of employment that apply across the public service. NJC subjects include government travel, relocation, commuting assistance, isolated posts and government housing, foreign service, work force adjustment, health and safety, the bilingualism bonus and public service health plans.

GOVERNANCE

National Joint Council

Under the NJC Constitution and By-laws, the activities of Council are formally governed at quarterly meetings of all participating Employer and Bargaining Agent members. Decisions of Council are made by consensus of the “Employer Side” and the “Bargaining Agent Side”. In the case of NJC directives, participating members give full legal force to Council decisions by incorporating new directives as integral components of their respective collective agreements.

The Executive Committee is composed of three (3) representatives from each of the Employer and Bargaining Agent Sides respectively, supported by a Side Secretary for each side. The Executive Committee is empowered to act on behalf of Council in administering the activities of the NJC during the intervals between quarterly meetings. Executive Committee decisions are subject to formal ratification by Council when they are reported at Council’s regular quarterly meetings. Council may also delegate its decision-making authority to the Executive Committee to facilitate timely and effective action.

The General Secretary acts under the broad direction of the Executive Committee and is not a member of Council or any NJC committees. The Employer and Bargaining Agent Sides alternately nominate the General Secretary who heads the NJC Secretariat for a five-year term. The NJC Secretariat, operating under the supervision of the General Secretary, offers administrative and professional support to Council and its constituent bodies.

The day-to-day work of the NJC is accomplished by the many hard-working and dedicated representatives of the parties who serve as appointed members of NJC Working Committees, working groups and Boards of Management. These constituent bodies report to Council through the Executive Committee and carry out a wide range of activities as determined from time to time by the Executive Committee.

ACHIEVEMENTS

The various Working Committees and Boards of Management that fall under the auspices of the NJC continued to advance the work assigned to them by Council. The National Joint Council was fortunate to continually benefit from the hard work and dedication of its members. Each of the Working Committees and Boards of Management are comprised of knowledgeable and experienced Bargaining Agent and Employer representatives. In the following pages, you will find a summary of some of the main activities and achievements that each Working Committee or Board of Management accomplished during the 2024-2025 fiscal year.

COMMITTEE & BOARD MEETINGS

The NJC Secretariat had another busy year providing professional, administrative, and logistical support to organize meetings for Council, the Executive Committee, and the various Working Committees and Boards of Management. In total, the Secretariat organized 165 meetings throughout the 2024-2025 fiscal year. These meetings were conducted in-person, virtually, and in a hybrid format.

GRIEVANCES & APPEALS

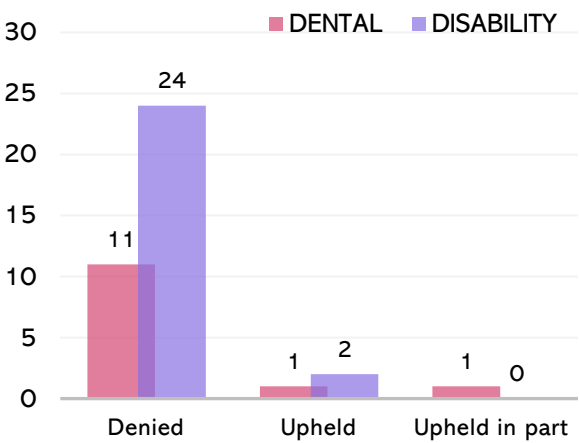

Final level grievance hearings at the NJC are designed to discover whether an employee has been treated within the intent of the directive. NJC committee members from the Employer Side and Bargaining Agent Side work in collaboration to weigh the facts and determine whether the directive has been applied as intended. The NJC grievance process is a long-standing example of alternative dispute resolution. At the final level, the grievances are considered on the basis of “intent”, which is distinct from the regular collective agreement grievance process.

2024-2025 GRIEVANCES

For the 2024-2025 fiscal year, 12 grievance files carried over from the previous fiscal year, 18 new grievance files were received, and 17 grievances were disposed of. The remaining 13 active grievances were carried over into the 2025-2026 fiscal year.

2024-2025 APPEALS

Both the Dental Care Plan Board of Management (NJC Part) and the Disability Insurance Board of Management heard appeals on cases relating to the denial of benefits by the plan administrators. During 2024-2025, 26 disability appeals, and 13 dental appeals were decided by the Boards of Management. Further details regarding the Boards’ activities are contained in each Board of Management’s Annual Report, which are available on the NJC website.

FOREIGN SERVICE DIRECTIVES COMMITTEE

CHAIRPERSON: Denis Trottier

The 36 Foreign Service Directives currently in place cover many situations attributable to the provision of foreign services, such as Relocation (FSD 15), Shelter (FSD 25), Education Allowances (FSD 34), Post Living Allowance (FSD 55) and Emergency Evacuation and Loss (FSD 64).

GOVERNMENT TRAVEL COMMITTEE

CHAIRPERSON: Jennifer Cruickshank

The Government Travel Committee reviews the Travel Directive and the Commuting Assistance Directive and hears final level grievances on these authorities, when required by the Executive Committee.

The principles found within these directives were developed jointly by the Bargaining Agent and the Employer representatives of the National Joint Council and are the cornerstone for the management of government travel and guide all employees and managers in achieving fair, reasonable and modern travel practices across the public service. The purpose of the Travel Directive is to ensure fair treatment of employees required to travel on government business, including training.

The purpose of the NJC Relocation Directive is to ensure fair treatment of employees authorized by the Employer to relocate to a new principal residence at a new regular workplace consistent with the principles listed in the Directive.

The aim is to relocate an employee in the most efficient fashion, at the most reasonable cost to the public while having a minimal detrimental effect on the employee and their family and on departmental operations. Trust, flexibility, respect, valuing people, and transparency are some of the main principles that are cornerstones of the NJC Relocation Directive.

CHAIRPERSON: Denis St-Jean

The NJC Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Directive contains enhancements to the Canada Labour Code Part II ("the Code").
